

I disagree with this proposal. The FCC needs to drop all requirements in the amateur radio license. Morse Code (MC) is dead or dying fast the world over in my opinion. I strongly believe the MC requirement has hurt the ham community by keeping potential new hams out of the ham ranks. We need to move in to the new world out there. Thanks